
Students place in poster competition

Two St. Jean Vianney Catholic School students placed in the Baton Rouge Bar Association annual poster contest in conjunction with Law Day, a national day that celebrates the rule of law.

Aubrey Herndon won second place and a $75 savings bond, while

Austin LeBlanc tied for third place and won a $50 savings bond.

More than 1,300 students attended the Law Day opening ceremony at the Baton Rouge River Center. Participants attended interactive courtroom sessions at the 19th Judicial Court.
