

Simoneaux receives Sword Award

Christopher Simoneaux was recently honored with the St. Michael Student Sword Award. To earn this award, a student must be a model for his or her fellow peers, displaying high moral standards and dedication to the philosophy of the school. The recipient must serve the school and the larger community through leadership, loyalty and commitment. The student recipient is selected by the faculty through general nomination and approved by the administration.

Ryan Guerin, a 1998 graduate of Bishop Sullivan High School, was named the 2010 St. Michael High School Alumni of the Year, and Deacon Frank Bains was recently honored with the prestigious Sword Award, the highest honor given by the school.
